Manure—Receptacles and transportation (ordinance adopted Apr. 22, 1912).

SEC. 1. It shall be the duty of every person owning, controlling, operating, or having in charge any stable, barn, or other place where horses, mules, cows, or other live stock is kept, to have and maintain at all times upon the premises in or adjacent to said stable, barn, or place, a fly-tight receptacle of sufficient dimensions and for the purpose of containing the droppings of manure from said stock, and the same shall have a top or lid so arranged as to be fly-tight and to exclude therefrom all flies, and therein to promptly deposit all droppings from said stock, and to keep the lid thereon (except when necessarily open for the purpose of depositing therein or removing therefrom) closed in such manner as to prevent the ingress of flies thereto. And every person, company, or corporation having or keeping such manure in the city shall cause the same to be removed from the premises at least once every week. No person shall remove or transport any such manure over any public highway in the city except in a tight vehicle, which, if not inclosed, must be effectually covered with canvas or other suitable material, so as to prevent the manure from falling therefrom.

SEC. 2. Any person violating or failing to comply with the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $5 nor more than $50 for each offense, and each separate day upon which the offense is committed shall be deemed a separate offense within the purview of this ordinance.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the health officer of the city of Chattanooga and of all police officers and others vested with police powers to see to the enforcement of this ordinance and to arrest or cause the arrest of offenders against the same.

SEC. 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force two weeks from and after its passage.
